

Experiential Course/Practicum Application
Regent University School of Law
Center for Global Justice, Human Rights and the Rule of Law

Course Applied for: _____

Student Name: _____ tel. # _____

E-mail address _____ Do you have transportation? _____

Eligibility consideration:

Completed the 1L course curriculum _____

Currently taking or have taken: ___ Family Law ___ Legislation ___ Drafting ___ Admin. Law

Faculty Reference: _____ ext. _____

List your law-related experience to date. Attach current resume. _____

List your complete course schedule, as well as co-curricular and extra-curricular commitments on the final sheet of this application. _____. Admission to the experiential course will take into consideration workload, course and work schedule, and student availability to engage in practicum duties and activities. It will be your responsibility to inform the professor of any changes to this schedule, as well as availability changes throughout the semester.

State briefly the reasons for applying for this experiential course. Explain your calling, interest, and rationale for taking this course. Attach an addendum if necessary. _____

State briefly any reservations you may have about participating in this experiential course.

How many hours per week are you prepared to spend on this course's responsibilities? _____

How many credits of this course do you plan to register for: 1 2 3 (Circle one)

Applicant's Signature

Date

Disposition

_____ Completed Application

_____ Completed Schedule

Accepted: _____ Declined: _____ Deferred to next semester: _____

Basis for disposition: _____

Course professor: _____ Date: _____

Course Title